Swans

Swans are the largest water birds in the world. You often see wild swans on lakes or rivers. Most swans are white, but you can see black swans in some countries.

Swans look lovely but be careful if one really near to you. If a swan suddenly frightened, it will try to fly away and might hurt you. Swans have really strong wings!

Their necks are than any other birds' necks because they use them to help find food in the water. In a river are lots of plants and insects for swans to eat!

Swans live together in pairs or families. Young swans don't usually leave their parents the next new babies join the family.

Some swans don't like winter weather so when it starts getting colder, wonderful birds begin the long journey warmer environments.

Wild swans usually live for about twenty years but swans live in places like zoos live for fifty years!

That is such a good idea!

Lucy West likes being an office manager, but when it's hot and sunny she looks out of the window at the view and dreams of holidays in the countryside. Last Thursday morning, the weather was wonderful. But there was so much work to do. Lucy turned on her computer and started answering lots of important emails.

At twelve o'clock she said to Alice, a designer who worked in the room as well, 'We need a holiday! But we can't leave the office. What shall we do?'

'Let's have a holiday here in our lunch break!' Alice said. 'Turn off the computers!'

The two women moved their desks and computers and put a blanket and two cushions from the office cupboard down on the floor. Alice fetched a huge plate, two glasses and a cold bottle of lemonade from the office kitchen and then took some cheese, olives and cookies from her shopping bag. Alice played a CD of wild birds singing and the warm light from the sun came through the open office window.

The women sat on the blanket, had their picnic, closed their eyes and dreamed of being in the countryside. It was difficult to start work again that afternoon! When Lucy got home her husband asked, 'Was it busy in the office today?' 'Yes! I wrote 148 emails and fixed a computer program and Alice finished her project,' she laughed. 'But we went on holiday too!'

Mary's naughty friend

Mary felt too excited to eat her dinner. She suddenly jumped up from the table and said, 'I'm going to phone Grandma before I go on my school trip!'

Mary's grandmother was surprised to hear her granddaughter on the phone. 'It's quite late, Mary.' 'I know, but I'm so excited,' Mary answered. 'I'm going to go on a school camping holiday. My friends and I are going to have lots of fun!' 'Wow!' her grandmother said.

'We have to take pens and write about the birds there. Perhaps bears, too!' Mary said. 'And my friend and I are going to look for a big, dark cave with wild bats and huge furry mountain monsters inside! We don't get frightened by things like that!'

'Well, it sounds scary to me,' Grandma laughed. 'But you're brave! Tell me more!'

'Well, we have to take things for washing,'

Mary answered. 'But my friend and I are going to wash outside. We can clean our dirty faces in the rain! And we have to take things for eating, like forks and spoons, but my friend and I are going to put sweets and chocolate biscuits in our rucksacks too, so we can have midnight snacks. And we're going to put beetles in Nick White's trainers and spiders in his bed!'

'Who's this naughty friend of yours, Mary?' Grandma asked. 'I'm not going to tell you that, Grandma,' Mary answered. 'It's a secret!'

The wrong suitcase!

Lucy and her parents, Mr and Mrs Field, put their summer clothes and swimming and sailing things in their big, blue suitcase and drove to the airport. Lucy was excited because she was going on a sports holiday. When they got to the airport, Lucy's dad showed their tickets and then the family hurried to the bookshop to choose some magazines.

After that, they went to get on the plane. Lucy's seat was by the window! During the journey, Lucy's mum read about a famous ice hockey team, her dad talked to another passenger about a golf match and Lucy watched an adventure film about mountain climbing. When they got off the plane, they took a taxi to the hotel. 'Wow!' said Lucy when they arrived. 'Look at all the sailing boats! And, look! You can play table tennis by the pool. Oh! Where's my swimsuit? Can I go for a swim? I can't wait until tomorrow!'

'Not yet, Lucy,' her mother said. 'We have to take our things up to our room first.' When Lucy's father picked up the suitcase, he said, 'That's strange. This feels much heavier than it did before!'

Mrs Field laughed. 'You think that because you're tired after our long journey! Come on! I've got our key. Look! Our room number is 501. It's on the fifth floor.' They went up in the lift, found their room and went inside. Then Lucy's dad opened the suitcase to take out their swimming things. 'Oh no!' he said. 'Whose ski hat is this? Why are there three pairs of gloves and all these warm socks in the suitcase?'

What a terrible mistake! The family had the wrong suitcase!

Oliver goes to hospital

Look at the picture and read the story.
Write some words to complete the sentences
about the story. You can use
1, 2, 3 or 4 words.

Last December, it didn't stop snowing. One day, Oliver and his friends went sledging on a high hill. When Oliver's sledge hit some stones, he fell and hurt his elbow and broke his leg! His friends were very worried and quickly rang Oliver's parents. His father came to help and an ambulance took Oliver to hospital.

Oliver had to stay in hospital for a few days. The nurses were friendly and kind so, at first, Oliver didn't mind. He didn't have to go to school or do any homework like his classmates. He just lay in bed in his pyjamas, and listened to pop music, played chess on his phone and watched his favourite football team scoring lots of goals on TV. But after two days, Oliver began to feel quite bored and a little unhappy.

But, on the third morning, Peter Windows, one of the players in the football team arrived! He brought Oliver a present – a pair of really cool football boots! Oliver's best friend came, too. 'You can borrow my laptop while you're here,' he said.

That afternoon, Oliver had another surprise. His teacher appeared! He brought something for Oliver as well but it was some maths homework! 'I'm sorry about your poor leg, Oliver,' he said, 'but make sure you do this before you come back to school in January!'

Hi Peter. Here's how you play

Open the first door. (1) the tree to find the silver key. Carry the key carefully back down the tree and put it in the plastic bag which you'll find in the metal box. Carry the key and the bag up the stairs. Take out the key and use it to open the (2) door. Leave the key in the door and go back down the stairs. Don't (3) to take the plastic bag with you.

Put the plastic bag in the tree. Now find the special rock. It's between the two lizards. Pick this up and put the rock in the metal box. Carry the box up the stairs and go through the open second door and use the rock to (4) the glass door. Put the box and the rock down and jump carefully through this third door. Turn on the light. In front of you is another box. This one is made of wood. The gold ring is (5) it. Pick the box up, run down the other stairs and throw the box on the fire. The wood will burn and then the fire will stop. You'll see the gold ring! But a monster will try to stop you picking it up. Run (6) back upstairs, fetch the special rock, run downstairs again and give it to the monster. The monster will go back into the cave and then you can take the gold ring!

Wonderful sounds

Hello, my name's Tom and I live in a busy city, but last June I went camping in the countryside for the first time. I went with Grandpa Pat and my two cousins who are three years older than I am. It was exciting because we didn't arrive until midnight. It was very quiet and we couldn't see very much because it was so dark. Putting up our tent was quite difficult!

When I woke up early the next morning, there were so many unusual sounds outside. I could hear birds that were singing all kinds of different tunes. I could also hear some water outside, but it sounded much noisier than a river. I opened up the tent quietly because I didn't want to wake my grandfather and cousins and stood up slowly to see where we were. 'This is the most beautiful place that I've ever seen!' I thought. 'I can't wait to walk up those hills and through those woods.'

Then, between some high trees, I saw the lovely waterfall and all the rocks below it. There was a deep stream too. It was only a little way away from our tent. 'What a beautiful view and that's such a wonderful sound,' I whispered to myself. 'I wish I could see and hear this every morning!'

Naughty Daisy

Last Sunday, our family wanted to go to the village festival, but the weather was very cold and windy so it wasn't a good day to be outside. We decided to stay at home.

After lunch, my little sister Daisy was really bored. She came into my bedroom and said, 'George, play this board game with me!' 'Sorry, Daisy,' I said, 'I can't close these files on my laptop yet because I need to finish my science homework.'

Daisy went into the living room. 'Will you play with me, Dad?' she asked. 'Yes, but I'm busy now,' he explained. 'In a minute, but I must finish reading this important information on your school's website first.'

Mum was talking on the phone in the hall. Daisy began asking her to come and play, but Mum said, 'Not now, Daisy. I'm explaining something to Aunt Sarah.'

'No-one wants to play with me,' thought Daisy. She was really angry. She didn't like playing all alone so she went upstairs to fetch her favourite doll.

When Dad finished his work, he called Daisy's name. Then Mum finished speaking to Aunt Sarah and called Daisy's name, too. But Daisy didn't answer. I stopped writing and ran downstairs really quickly. I could hear her laughing loudly. 'She's in the kitchen by herself,' I thought. 'What's she doing in there ... ?'

Hi Peter,

I went to the World Zoo today. Someone told me about the new dolphin trainer who works there. Her name's Alex Sugar. She's not famous like other people on your programme, but she's very interesting and funny and so are the dolphins at the zoo! But there's a problem. Alex Sugar can come to the film studio, but the dolphins can't. So we'll have to take all our cameras and lights to the zoo and film her, the dolphins and the programme there. Do you agree with that? Harry and the difficult questions

Harry Doors loved learning. He had hundreds of books in his room at home and often searched the internet, as well to find out about jungles, the oceans, snails, pop music or anything else that he was interested in.

One day Harry's teacher said, 'Would you like to be on a TV programme, Harry? It's a competition on Channel 7 for the cleverest children in the country. You'll have to answer several difficult questions!' 'Yes! Of course!' Harry answered.

The next day, a man called Mr Silver came to the school with some important information for Harry about the competition. 'But before we do the quiz on TV, I have four questions. Are you ready, Harry?' 'Yes!' Harry whispered because suddenly the quiz sounded quite frightening! 'Good! Where's the River Thames?' 'In London,' Harry said. 'And what are a group of jellyfish or bees called?' 'A swarm.' Harry answered.

'Well done! What's 27 times 5?' '135!' Harry answered quickly.

'Great! Which is the highest mountain in the world?' 'Mount Everest and it's 8,848 metres high!' Harry was pleased. He knew all his answers were right.

'Excellent!' the man said. 'You're clever enough for the competition. Next Tuesday a taxi will bring you and your parents to Television House at six o'clock! Now, I just need to know your age. When's your birthday, Harry?' Harry was so excited he couldn't speak. 'Sorry!' he said. 'I've forgotten!'

Alice and her father often go to the park together early in the morning. They're both going to be in a long (1) this summer so they go to the park to practise. Sometimes they run as far as five kilometres. On some days, Alice decides to roller skate or skip part of the way. She loves skipping and can skip (2) than anyone else in her class.

Last Monday, while Alice and her dad were on the path that goes around the lake at the park, an enormous furry dog suddenly ran past them and Alice's dad (3) into the water! He got really wet and cold and had to hurry home, quickly dry himself, find a (4) to put round his shoulders and sit down on the sofa.

'We can't run tomorrow, Alice,' he said. Alice felt unhappy when he said that because she loved running with her dad. Alice's dad could see that Alice was feeling sad.

'Don't (5) ! It will only be for one day!' he laughed. 'We can go again on Wednesday morning instead!'

Alice felt much better after that!

6 Now choose the best name for the story. Tick (✓) one box.

Be careful Dad! The skipping prize! Alice's terrible cold!

E Complete the sentences about getting ready.

Before Mr (1) and his daughter, Alice, went to the park, they needed to get ready. Alice's father put on a (2) and some (3) and then he fetched his trainers from the (4) and put those on, too. Alice combed her (5) and put on her clean (6) and some (7) as well.
